

Singapore National Academy of Science's Privacy Statement

Last updated March 2019

This statement applies to Singapore National Academy of Science (SNAS) website (<https://snas.org.sg>) where data is collected for the purpose of nominating an individual as a Fellow, or award winner (including Young Scientist Award) or registration for an event. Any individuals submitting a nomination of another individual would have deemed to have sought permission of the nominee or other individuals whose private information is submitted and obtained their consent. By attending any events organized by SNAS, visiting our website or providing any personal information through our website or our third party sites, you are accepting and consenting to the collection, use and disclosure of personal data described in this statement. You may contact the Honorary Secretary for any questions related to this matter.

What we collect

Personal data collected may include your full name, date of birth, contact information, address (home and work), citizenship, educational background, working experiences, IP address etc. when you visit our website with a cookies-enabled browser or when you submit a nomination, application or a question through our website or when you disclose your personal data through our website in any other way. Photographs may also be taken if you participate in any events organized or co-organized by SNAS.

How we use or share your personal data

The data collected will be used by those involved in the evaluation and selection process for a Fellow or award winner or to coordinate an event organized by SNAS. You may be contacted to assist with the selection process or to provide you with information directly relevant to your participation in SNAS.

Your data and photographs taken may be shared with co-organisers or third parties who are involved in the event. They may be used for related reports, marketing, publicity and promotion of SNAS through the media/social media.

Do note that SNAS may link to third party websites that may have different privacy practices. Data submitted to other sites even when linked from SNAS site will not be subjected to this privacy statement. Please review the privacy statement of those sites before visiting them and submitting any personal information to those sites.

Please contact us at singaporenas@gmail.com if you have any concerns.
